Re: False and Defamatory Statements by Michel Raviol

To Les Poochs Management:

Please inform the Les Poochs family of partners, suppliers, retailers and users that I and the firm of Bailey Duquette P.C. have been made aware of the false and defamatory statements made by Michel Raviol about you and your company and that we have taken and continue on taking swift legal action to address them. As your lawyers, we recommend that you inform your partners to contact us if they have any concerns about any information disseminated by Mr. Raviol or anyone else sharing his illegal posts.

Please inform your partners that Raviol's postings on social media (including, but not limited to, Facebook, Shampoos and the Grooming Industry, etc.), and his statements regarding Les Poochs' ownership and operation in a podcast interview with The Groom Pod, are completely false and illegal. Raviol is in clear violation of a Court Order by the Superior Court of New Jersey explicitly instructing him to:

- “not directly or indirectly engage in, or participate as an owner, partner stockholder, officer, employee, director, agent of, or consultant for, any business that is competitive with any business of the Les Poochs Entities.” As such, Raviol's promotion of “Michel's Forever Pooch” brand is directly violating this section of the Order.
- “not make any disparaging or defamatory statements or comments about [Les Poochs] or about any employee, representative, agent, director or officer therefore.” As such, Raviol's defamatory statements on Facebook about Les Poochs Luxury Products, its executive team and its employees are directly violating this section of the Order. Additionally, Raviol's disparagement of the brushes manufactured by Les Poochs Brushes (while promoting competitor brushes) is yet again a violation of the Court Order.

Please assure your partners that we have been protecting, and will continue to protect, Les Poochs and its partners by taking swift legal action against anyone intending to harm the business. We have already filed a motion with the Court to find Raviol in contempt of the judges' Order. You and your partners should feel free to contact me at any time should you have any concerns or need more information.
